Richard I. Clark, Esq. Keynote Speaker at "Cities/Municipalities Conference"

Sparta, NJ – Richard I. Clark, Esq., a partner in the law firm of Laddey Clark & Ryan, LLP, Sparta, NJ, has been selected as a keynote speaker for ReedLogic's Executive Conference: The Winning Legal Strategies for Cities/Municipalities Conference.

His practice at Laddey Clark & Ryan focuses on Municipal Law, Zoning and Planning in addition to other law areas. Clark is a Diplomat of Municipal Law and vice chair of the League of Municipalities Land Use Committee. Additionally, he is a member of the Land Use Drafting Committee of the League of Municipalities and is a trustee of the Land Use Section of the State Bar Association and a current associate counsel for New Jersey Planning Officials.

Clark is a frequent speaker at various New Jersey Planning Officials' (NJPO) seminars, ICLE (Institute for Continuing Legal Education) Land Use Seminars and has recently had a timely article on eminent domain published in Commercial Property News.

He has also been named a 2005 and 2006 New Jersey Super Lawyer.

Clark's speech will be made available on CD-Rom in bookstores nationwide. The speech will be future-oriented and addresses issues currently facing cities and municipalities or ones that they will be facing shortly.

Speakers are selected by Reed Logic based on recommendations made by previous speakers from global 500 companies and are directed toward "C-level" executives (i.e., CEOs, CFOs, CTOs., etc.).
