Garofalo To Address Municipal Boards

Sparta, NJ – The New Jersey Planning Officials (NJPO) have again asked Michael Garofalo, Esq., an Attorney with Laddey Clark & Ryan, LLP, Sparta, NJ, to teach its “New Planning Board” and its “New Zoning Board” courses, which are now required by law for all new members of these Boards.

Garofalo’s practice at Laddey Clark & Ryan, focuses on Municipal Law, Zoning and Planning; Municipal Litigation and Real Estate. He is the Board Attorney for Oxford Township and represents numerous commercial and residential developers. The firm represents ten municipalities and boards and serves as special litigation counsel to municipalities throughout the state. The firm is active in the New Jersey League of Municipalities.

The courses will be given on Saturday, February 25th, at the Morris County Fire and Police Academy, 500 West Hanover Avenue, Parsippany, NJ. Interested board members should call: (908) 412-9592 to sign up for this mandated course.

The courses will contain timely and updated information on the Jurisdiction of Planning and Zoning boards, Required membership of Planning and Zoning boards, Nature and types of zoning variances, Legal requirements for granting variances, Basic zoning concepts and the public hearing process.

NJPO is a non-profit, tax-exempt organization comprised of members of planning and zoning boards, elected officials and land use professionals in the state of New Jersey.

Garofalo earned his Juris Doctorate from Seton Hall University School of Law and has been a frequent speaker at Land Use seminars.

Laddey Clark & Ryan is headquartered at 60 Blue Heron Road, Sparta, NJ (minutes from the Sparta/Lake Mohawk Business District exit off Route 15). To learn more about the firm and its diversified practice, log on to its web site: www.lcrlaw.com.
