Thomas N. Ryan, Esq. To Be Honored by Foundation

Sparta, NJ – Thomas N. Ryan, Esq. will be honored by the Mountain Lakes Education Foundation (MLEF) at a dinner following its Annual Golf and Tennis Outing on Monday, October 10th. The MLEF supports academic and cultural enrichment activities in the Mountain Lakes public school system. Ryan, who resides in Mountain Lakes, is the Managing Partner of the law firm of Laddey, Clark & Ryan, LLP. He was a founding and long time member of the MLEF's Board of Trustees. Ryan is also a former President of the Mountain Lakes Board of Education, having served as a Board member for six years.

The dinner will be held at the Rockaway River Country Club on Monday, October 10th. For reservations or additional information, contact Laura Fitzgerald at 973-402-1899.

Ryan currently serves as the attorney for the MLEF. He also serves the Mountain Lakes community as a Trustee, and Past-President, of the Lakers Sports Club, Inc., a non-profit organization established to provide support for the athletic programs and student athletes at Mountain Lakes High School. Ryan also serves as legal counsel to the Mountain Lakes based Medical Needs Foundation, having served as a founding member of its Board for many years.

In addition to serving as Managing Partner, Ryan chairs the Labor and Employment Practice Group and the Corporate Practice Group at Laddey, Clark & Ryan, LLP. He serves as Labor and Employment Counsel for Sussex County, as well as for numerous municipalities, including Sparta Township, Franklin Borough, Wantage, Stillwater and Byram Township. He also serves as Labor and Employment Counsel, as well as outside General Counsel, to numerous small and mid-sized companies.

Ryan is a member and Past-President of the Sussex County Bar Association, a member of the Morris County Bar Association, the Employment Law Section of the New Jersey State Bar Association, as well as a member of the Trial Attorneys of New Jersey. He has been honored with designation as "Master" in the Sidney Reitman Employment Law Inn of Court. In addition to his Law Degree from Seton Hall University, Ryan holds a Masters Degree from Harvard University where he studied education, public policy and labor relations.

Laddey, Clark & Ryan, LLP is headquartered at 60 Blue Heron Road, Sparta, New Jersey (minutes from the Sparta/Lake Mohawk Business District exit off Route 15). Additional information about Ryan and the firm may be found on its website: www.lcrlaw.com
