Laddey, Clark & Ryan Paralegal Speaks at SCCC Career Symposium

Sparta, NJ – Susan Hughes, a Paralegal with Laddey, Clark & Ryan, LLP, Sparta, NJ, spoke recently at Sussex County Community College's (SCCC) Career Symposium, which drew approximately 300 participants.

Hughes graduated from SCCC in 2004 with highest honors, earning an Associate of Applied Science Degree in Paralegal Studies. She was also awarded the College's Presidential Award for maintaining a 4.0 GPA.

In discussing the role of a Paralegal, Hughes stressed that a Paralegal must adhere to the same level of ethics and professionalism as an attorney; and that the Paralegal's primary duty is to provide assistance and support to the supervising attorney.

Hughes noted that when involved in the law, there is never a dull moment and that the Paralegal is constantly learning and always needing to learn more. As an SCCC graduate, she noted that the college's curriculum and professors offered excellent preparation.

Hughes joined Laddey, Clark & Ryan in 2004, working in the Estate Planning Practice Group, led by Richard I. Clark, Esq. Hughes' focus at Laddey, Clark & Ryan is in the preparation of wills, living wills, powers of attorney, trust documents and deed transfers. She also assists Clark with the preparation of documents for estate administration and estate litigation matters.

Hughes and her husband, Peter, are Fredon Township residents. She is a member of Phi Theta Kappa, an international honor society and also holds a BA in Education, Magna Cum Laude, from Rider University, Lawrenceville, NJ.

Laddey, Clark & Ryan, LLP, is headquartered at 60 Blue Heron Road, Sparta, NJ (just off the Route 15 Sparta/Lake Mohawk Business District exit).
