Lauren D. McFadden, Esq. Recognized

Sparta, NJ -- Lauren D. McFadden, Esq., of the law firm of Laddey, Clark & Ryan, LLP, Sparta, NJ, has been nominated by the New Jersey State Bar Association, for the Young Lawyers Division Community Service Award.

The nomination is a result of her coaching of the Newton High School Mock Trial team. McFadden coached the team of ten students for four months, and the students reached the semi-final round this year. McFadden noted that the team, comprised of both veteran and new members, was an "extremely bright and talented" group.

This is the second year McFadden, along with Laddey Clark & Ryan's partner, Andrew A. Fraser, coached the Newton High School Mock Trial team. While a student at High Point Regional High School, McFadden was a member of the mock trial team, and attributes the experience to the impetus of her legal career. She holds a B.A. from Rutgers College and earned her J.D. from Seton Hall University School of Law.

Her practice at Laddey Clark & Ryan focuses on personal injury, workers compensation and municipal court practice. McFadden is primarily involved with serious personal injury cases including wrongful death actions, motor vehicle accidents, and slip and fall cases.

Laddey, Clark & Ryan is headquartered at 60 Blue Heron Road, Sparta, NJ. Log on to its web site: www.lcrlaw.com to learn about the diverse areas of law its attorneys practice.
